Hill Railways

Darjeeling Himalayan Railway

The Darjeeling Himalayan Railway (DHR), given the nickname “the Toy Train,” is a 810-millimeter (2 ft) narrow-gauge railway that runs 88 kilometers (55 mi) between Siliguri and Darjeeling. Darjeeling is a major summer hill station and the centre of a flourishing tea-growing district located in West Bengal. More than a century old and one of the most well-known railways in the world, it was accorded the status of World Heritage site by UNESCO in 1999. The experience of travelling on this engineering marvel is unforgettable. A glimpse of magnificent Kanchenjunga mountain range, on a clear day, enthrals the visitor. The DHR offers special Joy Rides between Darjeeling and Ghum, full train on charter and Jungle Safari during the tourist season.
Railways And Tourism

Nilgiri Mountain Railway

The Nilgiri Mountain Railway is a 46 kilometers (29 mi) long metre gauge, single-line railroad which connects the town of Mettupalayam with the hill station of Udagamandalam (Ootacamund). The route is located within the state of Tamil Nadu and travels through the Nilgiri Hills, which are popularly known as the Blue Mountains of Southern India. The line contains 208 curves, 16 tunnels, and 250 bridges, causing the uphill journey along the route to take about 290 minutes (4.8 hours), while the downhill journey takes 215 minutes (3.6 hours). The Nilgiri Mountain Railway was declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site in July 2005.

Kalka Shimla Railway

The Kalka–Shimla Railway runs between Kalka and Shimla. The railroad is a 95.66 kilometers (59.44 mi) long, 2 ft 6 in (762 mm) narrow-gauge line. Shimla is the capital of Himachal Pradesh located at an elevation of 2,205 meters (7,234 ft) in the foothills of the Himalayas. The railway line was constructed by the Delhi–Ambala–Kalka Railway Company, beginning in 1898 in the Siwalik Hills, and was completed in 1903. The Kalka–Shimla Railway has 103 tunnels and 864 bridges. The Kalka–Shimla Railway joined the Nilgiri and Darjeeling lines as a World Heritage Site in 2008.

Kangra Valley Railway

The Kangra Valley Railway lies in the sub-Himalayan region of Kangra Valley and covers a distance of 164 km (101.9 mi) from Pathankot, Punjab to Jogindernagar in Himachal Pradesh, India. The Kangra valley railway comes under the Firozpur division of Northern Railway. The highest point on this line is at Ahju station at an elevation of 1,290 meters (4,230 ft). The railway line was planned in May 1926 and commissioned in 1929. The line has two tunnels, one of which is 250 ft (76 m) and the other 1,000 ft (300 m) in length. 6 trains run from Pathankot on daily basis of which two are upto Joginder Nagar and four are upto Baijnath Paprola.

Neral Matheran Railway

The Matheran Hill Railway covers a distance of 20 kilometers between Neral and Matheran in the Western Ghats. The construction of the Matheran Hill Railway began in 1904 and completed in 1907. The original tracks were built using 30 pound per yard rails but were later updated with heavier 42 pound per yard rails. Until the 1980s, the railway was closed during monsoon season due to increased risk of landslides, but it is now kept open throughout the year. The line is administered by Central Railways.
